

it shows his arrogance. If a person always speaks the truth this shows that he is honest. In short, our deeds reflect our character. So, good deeds reflect what we are from inside. Great persons like Mahatma Gandhi, Mahatma Hansraj, Swami Vivekanand, Sardar Bhepat Singh, Mother Teresa have become legends because of their good deeds. Therefore, it becomes very important that we should develop good character if we want to be remembered forever.

8th class

Good Deeds reflect Good Character

Good deeds reflect good character.
According to Gandhiji:-

'If money is lost, nothing is lost, If health is lost, something is lost
'But if character is lost, everything is lost.'

The quote tells us the importance of one's character in life. We come to know a person's character through his action.
All children are good when they are born but because of their habits, some become great and others stay bad.

Appearance can't tell a person's character.
He can't pretend throughout his life. If a person helps others, this shows his kind nature. If a person behaves rudely,
